

Adult Theatre Classes—Spring 2015

Our acting classes encourage mental, emotional, physical & creative workouts.

*The benefits of attending can include - increased confidence, presentation and public speaking skills; an enhanced social life and creativity; an improvement in general fitness and wellbeing; a certain 'joie de vivre'!

New! Up Stagers (Singing for Pleasure)

7.30pm-9.00pm Mondays, 12th January-23rd March, 2015
£6.00 per session 'pay as you go'

This term, we will be singing songs from the musicals and popular culture, so if you have a favourite, bring it along—and it may be added to the repertoire!

Please complete and return an application form, but don't send money.

(All are welcome but we really need some more males voices!)

Open Stagers (over 55s)

10.30am-12.30pm Thursdays, 15th January—26th March, 2015
£6.00 per session 'pay as you go'

These workshops are intended to offer an experience of most aspects of theatre — both theoretical and practical.

We usually work on vocal development, improvisation and a variety of texts. Projects vary from term to term.

If you've ever fancied acting, come along and find out more.

Individual Tuition

Telephone for an appointment from £35.00 per hour

One-to-one tuition designed specifically for you.

We can help you prepare for a presentation, speech or audition, guide you through vocal development (accent, diction, projection, tone) script work, developing a character and physicality.

Telephone or email for a preliminary chat

Feedback from our students

If I use some of the drama techniques I have learnt for the job, all will be well....

The group was full of really lovely people and my confidence grew...

The best, most challenging and yet most liberating course that I think I've done in my life!

I learned more than I expected — I didn't know a 'voice' could do so much! And it was FUN!

The games made me feel free and happy...

I am now more aware of my body language

I was able to put into practice some of the ideas as they were presented... I would love to do more of this physical theatre...

I loved the sense of play throughout the classes — particularly the work we did together as a group...
