

Mad Red Theatre School Presents

'The Light Burns Blue'

Written by Silva Semerciyan

Directed by Jen Dewsbury

During the first World War, 17 year old Elsie Wright fools the world into believing she has photographed fairies in her garden.

An ambitious young reporter seeks to expose Elsie as a fraud. But as she looks at the facts, she begins to suspect there's more to Elsie's story than a simple hoax.

4th-6th July, 7.30pm.

Matinee 2.30pm on Saturday Tickets £6.50 / £5.50 concs

Young Stagers Weekend Classes

£51.00-£84.00 per term

Want a career in the theatre? Or an imaginative, expressive hobby that builds your confidence while making friends?

We aim to create versatile, resourceful, team players. Our 2 year syllabus includes story-telling, vocal development, devising and improvisation, characterisation, movement, and script-work. With students from 67 local schools, some travelling up to a 50 mile round trip to attend, our reputation speaks for itself!

Young Stagers Weekday Classes -Tuesdays or

Thursdays £30.00-£65.00 per term

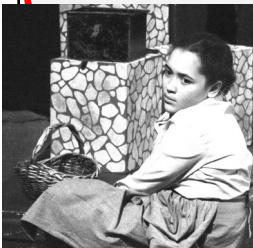

Essentially for children from the home educated sector. The workshops include theatre games and exercises with the opportunity for children to devise their own scenes and stories. Please telephone for more details.

Arts Awards

Bronze £135.00, Silver £170.00

These highly creative, accredited awards are aimed at encouraging young people to be more active in the arts world. We are offering Bronze and Silver support.

The fee includes moderation and booklet.

Individual Tuition

from £30.00 per hour

One to one tuition designed specifically for you.

We can help you prepare for a presentation, speech or audition, guide you through vocal development (accent, diction, tone, projection), script-work, developing a character and physicality.
